HARDEY-GROVES

On Saturday evening, August 6th, at the home of her parents, Elizabeth Clayton Groves became the bride of William K. Hardey. She was simply but becomingly gowed in white geor-gette and satin. Miss Halley Hardey sister of the groom, and Miss Blanch Ralston, acted as bridesmaids. Mr. Nils Omsted, an uncle of the brid, gave her into the keeping of the groom, who was attended by his brother, Mr. George Hardey. Rev. George H. DeKay, of Kahului, officiated at the simple ceremony.

The bride is the daughter of Mr and Mrs. George Groves, of Puunene and Mr. Hardey is the oldest son of Mr. and Mrs. William B. Hardey, also of Puunene. Both families among Maui's oldest and are well known throughout the island.

After the ceremony, at which none but members of the two immediate families were present, the young people attended the Kamehameha concert and dance at Kahului, and then returned to Puunene where they had the Kamehameha orchestra and danced up to the wee small hours of the morning.

The happy couple will make their home in Haiku where the groom is employed by the Haiku Fruit & Pack-

ing Company. ## ## ## WILL WED TOMORROW

Miss Elizabeth H. Seabury will to-morrow become the bride of William Maxwell, assistant surveyor of Pioneer Mill Co., Rev. Father Bruno officiating.

The bride to be is a former Maul girl, recently resident of Honolulu, daughter of John H. Seabury, formerly head water luna at Walkapu. The groom is a well known and popular West Mauilte who is this season playing center field on the Lahaina A. A

Following the wedding there will be a wedding dinner at the home of George Maxwell, father of the groom.

CELEBRATES BIRTHDAY

Al Reis of Pauwela celebrated his twenty third birthday last Sunday with a dinner at the Higashi restaurant. Earlier in the day he had cele-brated by holding the Wacs down to two hits while pitching for the Paia nine. Those who enjoyed the Jap-anese viands were William E. Bal, Sr. William E. Bal, Jr., M. G. Paschoal, A. Enos, M. Ross, Harold Gent, Jack Bergstrom, Ben Lyons, M. R. Pereira, J. M. Medeiros, Wid Affonso and A.

In the course of the dinner it de-veloped that the day was the birthday anniversary of two of the guests as well, George Cummings and M. G. Paschoal.

Fancy Dress Ball Is

Taking an early initiative Chairman Joe Meinecke of the entertainment committee of the Fair and Racing Association has made application for the Territorial Building on New Year's eve and his committee will stage a masquerade or fancy dress ball on that date. This is a step toward making a masked ball an annual event on Maul. Last year's New Year's Eve dance took the form of a fancy dress affair and enjoyable social events ever held here. At that time it was suggested that a dance of that type should be made a fixture in the Maui social cal-endar, and one held annually. Mr. Meinecke has kept the suggestion in mind, taken no chance of any one get-ting ahead of him and has secured the building for his committee on New Year's eve. He gives four and a half months notice of the preemption of the date and of the hall.

SABOTAGE CHARGED

Waiakea homesteaders, according to reports coming via Honolulu this morning, charge that Japanese laborers employed in Waiakea cane fields are causing loss to the homesteaders through wanton waste or utter indifference.

Mongoose Slaughter Meets With Opposition From Sugar Industry

Numbers of persons connected with the sugar industry are not in accord with those who are advocating a campaign for the extermination of the mongoose through the offering of payments for their heads and of special prizes for those who bring in the largest number of heads. Recently there was a conference in Honolulu on the subject attended by a number of those who are connected with the H. S. P. A., and in a Honolulu paper, H. P. Agee is quoted as saying: "While the mongoose is undoubtedly an enemy of game birds, it is likewise an enemy of insects, rats and mice," asserts H. P. Agee, director of the station. "Many people feel that the mongoose has failed as an enemy of the rat, but the records, both in Hawaii and Jamaica, indicate that the rats have been reduced to an appreciable extent by the mongoose.

Caution is Advised

"We would advise against the use of public funds in efforts to reduce the mongoose. The state of Pennsylvania spent thousands and thousands of dollars to exterminate the owls and hawks, and when their effort began to show results it was observed that the rats and mice had increased to such an alarming extent that protective measures had to be passed in behalf of the owls and hawks

The danger here, however, is not that the mongoose will be eradicated. The chance of reducing it to any considerable extent appears to us as a remote possibility. But in the mean-time a great deal of the taxpayers' money may be spent."

"The opinion of the experiment station, however, is not that the animal should be protected.

"We feel that the public should be we feel that the public should be free to take such steps as may be justified toward reducing it locally in various vicinities," Mr. Agee con-tinued. "We believe, though, that all such endeavors will be of tempor-ary and minor effectiveness."

Evidence in favor of the mongoose may be seen today on Kauai, Mr. Agee points out. The mongoose has not been introduced on that island, and the rat menace is in general more serious there than it is with the other islands of Hawaii

The mongoose was introduced from India about 25 years ago. Three years after this an article in the Planters' Monthly, said in part:

"There is no doubt that the mon goose has saved the planters of Hamakua thousand of dollars. In former years it was no uncommon thing to see one-fourth, and even one-half, of the cane left on the fields, the rats ancy Dress Ball Is having rendered that portion unfit for grinding by eating the stalks near the ground and causing them to rot and die.

"One planter said: (They complain one planter said: (They complain about the mongose eating chickens, but the little beggars save me thou-sands of dollars. Besides, it is only a few chickens they eat. I do not believe they destroy as many as the rats used to."

The experiment station entomologists have made a study of the habits of the mongosoe and have repotred that it is very destructive to insect life.

"Among the insects which it is proved that the mongoose eats are of the Japanese beetless, cockroaches of different kinds, molecrickets, grass hoppers, earwigs and ants, thus showing a catholic taste in its insect diet."

Penny Wise and Pound Foolish

Some concerns think it economy to send orders to Honolulu or to the mainland when they could be filled as well or better at home. They figure they save a few cents on the dollar by doing so and grasp at the nickel in sight.

BUT

Every dollar spent with Maui concerns passes from hand to hand, in wages, to the store, to the bank and out again into circulation, back to the concern that sent it out, again to be sent forth on its rounds. The profits accruing from the dollar kept in home circulation are many times larger than the small saving in the dollar sent away.
